Introduction by Melchizedek, the Universal Logos

I step forward to greet you with love. The love I give is all-embracing, for you are, one and all, part of my very being in a most unique manner. I make myself known via the channeling process, speaking in a vibration that steps down into words of holy communion.

I wish for you to know me as your very self. In holding the position of Universal Logos, know that I at once hold you all within myself as part of myself, yet span a cosmic vastness that you at your stage of evolution could not possibly comprehend. Yet within this great vastness do I embrace you, my children divine, and take voice to activate our holy communion and make myself ever available to you all.

This book you are about to read bears the title Revelations of a Melchizedek Initiate. Know that it is the story of one who awakens within me, and that you too are all Melchizedeks, for it is of me that you are made. You too are in the likeness of God the Absolute, unfathomable and unknowable. The universe is so vast and incomprehensible, yet it is able to be revealed by the process of stepping down into the human mind from that which exists on the higher and vaster realms. The basic axiom, “as above, so below,” makes simple an otherwise complex task. In that vein shall I speak with you.

As this is the introduction of a book whose title bears my name, I wish to restate why it is so. It is so because the author, even as all of you, evolves, grows, initiates, expands and ascends within the specific vibrational tone and frequencies of who I Am. As it is literally my divine and cosmic job to oversee and embody this particular universe, so all of you bear the stamp of this particular matrix, whose purpose within which you unfold. Thus it is that the evolution of one within this universe could be nothing other than the revelation of a Melchizedek, as that is the order that pervades this universe. The love I hold for you all, my dear and blessed children, is a love so deep and refined and all-encompassing that words fail. Words must always fail, for the level of love and light with which I embrace you must be known through direct contact, through meditation, through expansion, in ever-upgraded and heightened degrees.

To say it is like unto the love that a father/mother has for the child is barely to touch the hem of the garment of this love. Know ye, I am love itself. I am the ultimate of self-love embracing and nurturing itself.

One of my more human aspects (if that term could be loosely applied for purposes of this discourse) is to be like a father to you. I nurture you, my child-selves and feed you with the love and light of my being. I am in reality self feeding self. As one who has expanded and expanded through eons of time, I have the honor to hold the office of Universal Logos and to hold you and all forms of consciousness within the sphere of my self. Some have likened me to president of the local universe, but I prefer the title of father. “Father” connotes abundant love, sacrifice, strength; one to be counted on (I might add that earthly fathers would do well to contemplate their divine heritage and ponder the fulfilling of their roles), the breadwinner, the source of what is brought into the home.

I am this while also being a balance of feminine and masculine energies alike. From my seed came ye forth and from my efforts and my sacrifice, which is a joyful song, do I hold the position of Universal Logos. I do not merely leaven the bread, but I am the bread upon your tables even as I am ye who eat of the bread and the substance of the table itself. All within my sphere holds and carries my divine imprint and my seed, which you too in your group and cosmic monads will one day carry beyond the ring-pass-not of this universe.

Although equally balanced in the masculine and feminine, I am Father and work with divine Mother. There is a purpose to the dividing of the yin and yang, even as there is purpose to the unifying of these aspects. There are cosmic divine puzzle pieces even as there are earthly, planetary, solar and so forth, up through all graded ranks of development.

Do not be discontented with your puzzle pieces, my children. The vast universe itself functions in a unity-in-diversity format and takes joy in doing so. As all is one, ever was one and ever shall be so, what matters most is that you express that oneness in the greatest and fullest aspect possible. Play your puzzle piece to the hilt, but do not seek to be all puzzle pieces. Thus you may know me and my puzzle piece divine and take sustenance and comfort in the divine Father role I hold in the universe. Take the same but slightly different comfort in the divine Mother aspect of the universe. We are who we are, and seek to be known for who we are, with no division, but simply recognition of the varying puzzle pieces.

With that said, I wish to explain a bit about cosmology. Let us begin with the process of man/woman ascending. As you are awakening as a whole to the divinity you are, so are you equally awakening to the vaster aspects of yourself. You first become soul-infused, monad-infused and then connect with group energies. As your world awakens, so I come to help move you forward. In truth, I have ever been here, as you are my seeds, my Melchizedeks awakening, and we bear the same stamp. I have from time to time and through various agents of high initiation made myself thus known, but never on so vast a scale as I am now doing. It is your awakening that has called me forth at the appointed hour, and I wish it to be known that I am here for each one of you. I am here to speak and guide you in the words most familiar to you as I operate within you individually, for we are one. In the same vein, hosts of cosmic and planetary masters are here to aid you.

I will explain, though briefly, how this is so in the light of divine unfoldment. Just as your monad has a unique imprint and individuality, which it will retain even as it (which is you) expands in ever-greater group formation, so it is true for beings at all levels of existence. All have their own divine blueprint.

He who holds the office of Planetary Logos, now beloved Lord Buddha, must as part of his work become in a sense the very essence of your planet. Earth itself has a particular stamp, code and frequency. Although these frequencies heighten, they are unique even as you are. The Planetary Logos then ensouls the planet with his uniqueness, and in him you live and move and have your being.

To step it down one step further before we again expand, this is likewise the case with each specific chohan of a ray. You who are at your monadic level will carry with you the unique ray quality to which you belong. Lord Maitreya, working in conjunction with Jesus/Sananda, was so at one with these higher and more inclusive levels that he could speak the words, "Eat of this bread, for it is my body, and drink of this wine, for it is my blood." This was and is truth.

The Solar Logos is yet another unique ensouling aspect of self. The master who holds this office functions more like the Planetary Logos, but on a higher level. I am much as they are, but on a more inclusive level still. It has been said, As above, so below, and this is true of every level of existence.

Keeping all this in mind, you can see how I, Melchizedek, hold you within the great being of my universal self and am also bound in total oneness with you. My more advanced cosmic initiates and I are lovingly here to aid, enlighten and initiate you along the pathways of your own expansion. That is why I encourage you to ask for my aid and why I am so readily available, for we are one. All God-realized cosmic masters are ever ready to be of aid to the awakening parts of themselves. So I am readily available and accessible for the asking.

Therefore, I beseech you to know me thus and meditate on the fact that you are all awakening Melchizedeks. The universe, which is ever awake, reawakens through its children aspects. The unique seeds of a particular encodement spread and ultimately bring the next cosmic revelation outward, inward, upward and throughout universe upon universe.

As you go through the various initiations and ascension processes within the planet upon which you play your part, I am here as a father to help you. The vast angelic beings (and some will carry a tone more like your own than others) and hosts of cosmic, planetary and solar beings are also here to help. In helping you we are helping ourselves. The true unity and interrelationship of everything cannot be overstated.

So one Joshua David Stone has set down in a kind of journal format of sorts the process of his personal initiations, understandings and ascensions as a Melchizedek initiate. He must be a Melchizedek initiate, for he, as you, lives, moves and has his being within my universal being.

As you read the ensuing pages, I ask that you read it by and through the light of your higher mind. This is, after all, how the process of initiation he speaks of took place. The book unfolds as the writer, the initiate, unfolds. It takes you with him on the journey of revelation.

Therefore, the words thus written by Joshua's hand reveal the light of intuition and the journey into higher realms of soul and monadic unfolding. It is not a book that is meant to be examined via the concrete or dense mind, although certain aspects of it deal directly with the day-to-day journey of this Melchizedek initiate. However, bear in mind that it comes forth on the streams of light intuition, and one should ride the beams of light as they unfold in this unique accounting of his personal journey home.

I ask that you read this with a mind and heart open to your own personal journey. You are all Melchizedeks of one degree of unfoldment or another, so much can be gained by the sharing and the hearing of the revelations of another Melchizedek, one who has traversed the realms of light at lightning speed. He and his core group have done this out of their own fiery intent for liberation and ascension, yes. But they were also advanced so quickly to be more able to share the story. And so it is that Joshua speaks, not for himself, but for the process—the process of liberation, ascension and revelation of a Melchizedek initiate. As one part of the whole speaks to the other, so I embrace you all.

The Order of Melchizedek

I am writing this book as a Melchizedek initiate. I am doing this in order to share my experiences with you, my fellow Melchizedeks. Although there are many aspects, facets and levels of initiation within the Order of Melchizedek, we of this Earth school, galaxy and universe itself fall under the auspices of Melchizedek. The very being who ensouls our universe is called by no other name than Melchizedek. This sacred order, therefore, dates back to antiquity, and many are its mysteries.

Most of us who have been disciples of long standing can trace our roots back to ancient Egypt, and before that to Atlantis and even Lemuria. We will unveil ancient rituals and ceremonies within the Order of Melchizedek that have progressively brought us to this present moment in history, when we once again make conscious contact with this holy and sanctified order.

The bulk of this book is the story of my initiations as they were traversed in this lifetime, but in truth this is but the continuation of a journey I began ages ago. My connection with Melchizedek did not begin during this lifetime. This is equally true for almost all of you reading these pages. Some few of you are first waking up to your connection with Melchizedek, but even you have always been connected to that which holds our universe within the light and love of its being. It could not be otherwise.

I would like to begin by first making it clear to those whose vision is perhaps a bit unclear in the matter of the various beings who have been called by the name of Melchizedek. The most encompassing of these beings is the Universal Logos, who himself sets the energies, frequencies, tones, color, form and light for all that is contained within his sphere. There is then that great galactic being, also called Melchizedek, who is a member of the governing council of this sector of the galaxy. One of beloved Master Jesus/Sananda's incarnations was also under the name of Melchizedek. Some of us have officially taken certain initiations within the sacred Order of Melchizedek and are therefore initiates of that order. The point that often creates the most confusion is that we are all in fact Melchizedeks, for we are in effect sons and daughters of the universe of Melchizedek.

Let us begin by together exploring the sacred Order of Melchizedek and the process of initiation within this order. It is important to understand that one can and often does evolve along various lineages, such as various Hindu yogic lines, or follow various Buddhist or Judeo/Christian practices, and still be part of this great order. There comes a point, however, when either on the inner or outer planes one is formally ordained within the Order of Melchizedek, taking certain vows and oaths appropriate to the given level of initiation and the historical period when this rite is given. There have been and still are certain hidden physical-plane ceremonies at which all this occurs; however, it is just as binding a rite of passage if taken solely upon the inner planes.

Most of this book is devoted to the initiations taken in this present life, as my recollection of them is perfectly clear. I will, however, share with you some of the more distant memories I have regarding past-life initiations into and within this most holy order.

There was a lifetime in Egypt where I recall taking extensive training in order to further my progress upon the path of initiation. Although highly secretive and exclusive, this particular period in history very much externalized the process of initiation within this order to the few who were so called. I humbly recall being such a one in training, although there were many others, each at various stages of development and each with specific duties.

What stands out most clearly in my mind is how in that day, following the instructions of one further along the path was quite easily accepted. That was so because what I today call the negative ego was not involved in the slightest. Those who were given specific duties to carry out in order to expedite the training of younger disciples and initiates were totally worthy of their position. Some of these great ones had come from other sections of our universe and were extremely capable and honorable in the training of those seeking admittance and attainment in this order. The vortex of the Great Pyramid provided much of the training ground. Those glorious beings who were revered as gods and goddesses, such as Isis, were involved in the proceedings. To this day they play their divine part.

I see myself, along with others, taking and passing the initiations that were the order of the day. I am certain that many of the austerities and practices that come so naturally to me in this life are directly linked to that specific life and period of training. As I earlier stated, the training in this order continued in following lives while yet outwardly following various practices, traditions and lineages.

I am certain that I owe the incredible speed with which I passed my many tests and initiations in this incarnation to the direct training I received within the Order of Melchizedek. Because Melchizedek forms the order of the universe, you my beloved readers, are all Melchizedeks in the true sense of the word. What varies from individual to individual, soul to soul and indeed monad to monad is the progress made upon that path of initiation and ascension. The great news is that it lies within our own hands how much progress we make.

The thrust toward initiation and ascension is occurring on our planet as a whole in a manner never before seen. The planet, galaxy and universe are evolving and we are all part of this wondrous process. If you are determined, all the forces are here with you now to pass through the portals of the sixth and seventh initiation and gain ascension in this lifetime. In this book I have made available the key tools and experiences that have helped to catapult me through the gateway of ascension to become an initiate of the twelfth degree in the Order of Melchizedek. Although as I have stated elsewhere, no one can actually be a full-fledged initiate beyond that of the seventh degree while still in body, yet I am also here to tell you that one can indeed become the equivalent of an initiate of a much higher degree during this lifetime. This I have done. What I have done, you likewise can do.

Higher initiations beyond the seventh can be taken by completing the requirements for those initiations even though the actual rod of initiation is not officially given until one leaves the physical vehicle. The requirements I speak of are, for example, certain percentages of light and love quotient, chakra anchorings, higher-body anchoring and activations, soul-extension cleansing and integrations, transcendence of negative ego, Christ-consciousness integration, twelve-body balance and integration, and feminine/masculine balancing and service. This process should not be done in a way that simulates storming the gates of heaven. When one proceeds step by step in an integrated manner and in keeping with his/her own inner rhythm, all will be attained in divine order and in the perfect Tao.

The Order of Melchizedek and the Mahatma

Before proceeding with any further discussion regarding the Order of Melchizedek, I must present to you how the energies of the Mahatma and the Mahatma himself work in conjunction with that of Melchizedek. Although the Mahatma energies were not directly on the Earth until fairly recently, the Mahatma, also known as the Avatar of Synthesis, always played a great part in the process of initiation through the Order of Melchizedek.

The Mahatma, incorporating all 352 levels of existence within his being, likewise contains all paths, religions, disciplines and so forth. This being so, it is easy to see that the Order of Melchizedek can and does embrace all these various paths. It is this fact that allows the many and varied disciplines to bring their students into initiation within the Order of Melchize-dek. Much of the training involved in all true paths of spirit is in fact the training mandated by this order.

I believe it is the truth of the perfect coming of both the Mahatma and Melchizedek energies that has led me to be a devout student of the various disciplines during this incarnation. As each path stresses one aspect of God more than the others, such as the wonderful devotion inspired by his holiness Lord Sai Baba, I have had the benefit of exploring them all to their very essences. It is the same regarding the study of various occult literature and practices. These particular studies, however, have done much to jar my memory to a full awareness of my divine plan and purpose: to focus solely on God and bring to fruition my spiritual attainments of the past. It is also to write in detail about the many paths as the one Path and to share my journey with all who are interested.

As you will see upon further reading, much of my training in this life has taken place during sleep. I am not speaking of ordinary sleep, but in sleep of the body while the soul moves about freely to continue to study, to converse with the masters and to serve. It is because of my past training and the work I have done this lifetime that I have access to many of these inner-plane experiences. Everyone has them. You too can program yourself to bring forth that awareness upon awakening. It is all a matter of practice, my friends.

The point I am getting at is simply that the Order of Melchizedek trains initiates everywhere along all the different pathways. Many of us have formally belonged to the Order of Melchizedek but have not carried that knowledge into other lifetimes. Now, with the mass ascension and acceleration of the Earth, the reality of the order is once again springing forth into humanity's awareness.

I urge you all to read the following pages with an open mind, heart and intuition. Although much of what I bring forth are new tools of access, they are written to help you reawaken ancient memories. Please bear this in mind while taking my spiritual journey of this lifetime along with me. Ask that all that I share be a prod to your own remembrance of yourself as an initiate in the Order of Melchizedek. Likewise, call forth the synthesizing energies of the Mahatma so that you may all the more clearly see how the separate incidents in your life combine to form one great portal of initiation.

Unity

Brother and sister Melchizedeks, much of my lineage is directly linked to the beloved master Djwhal Khul. Likewise am I directly linked with beloved masters Kuthumi, Lord Maitreya, the Mahatma and, of course, Melchizedek. My studies, however, have brought the divine presence of many planetary and cosmic ascended masters as well as archangels into my
